

Please do not reduce broadband regulationn for Bellsouth or any other carrier. Without regulation, the big carriers could hugely increase prices to independent ISP's, who are their competitors as well as their customers. Due to the almost monopoly status of the big carriers, and their customer/competitor relationship to independent ISP's, regulation is required.

Thanks,

Steve Litt